

Your AAPI leadership story deserves to be told.

Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) are the fastest growing ethnic group in the U.S., and make up 7.7% of the total U.S. population. But no national study exists on the experiences of AAPI girls and gender-expansive youth. Let's change that.

If you...

- Are 14-22 years old
- Are a girl or are gender-expansive youth
- Identify as Asian American or Pacific Islander*
- Have 15 minutes to spare before June 30, 2023

...then you're eligible to participate in the first-ever national study on AAPI girls run by Girls Leadership, a national educational nonprofit teaching girls to exercise the power of their voice.

Valid participants will be entered to win:

- A signed copy of Crying in H Mart, Amazing: Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders Who Inspire Us, or Everything I Never Told You
- A Rilakkuma lavender plush toy
- A Phenomenally Asian t-shirt
- A Never Have I Ever Poster
- $100 worth of Sprinkles cupcakes
- Swag from Asian American Girl Club
- An Anna May Wong Barbie doll

We're looking to learn more about:

- Your perceptions of leadership
- Your classroom leadership experiences
- How your community impacts your leadership

Findings will help schools and community based organizations advocate for AAPI girls and gender-expansive youth in schools, after-school programs, sports programs, and community based organizations.

*AAPI includes:

- Those who identify as biracial and/or multi-racial AAPI identities
- AAPI adoptees, and trans-racial adoptees
- Filipino/Filipino American
- Vietnamese/Vietnamese American
- Central Asian/Central Asian American (Afghani, Kazakh...)
- East Asian/ Southeast Asian American (Chinese, Hmong, Hongkongers, Japanese, Korean, Okinawan, Taiwanese...)
- South Asian/South Asian American (Bangladeshi, Indian, Nepali, Pakistani, Sri Lankan...)
- Native Hawaiian and/or Pacific Islander (Fijian, Samoan, Tongan...)
- Documented and undocumented girls and gender-expansive youth

Your answers will be completely anonymized, and only ever used for study purposes. Girls Leadership will never ever share your information. This project was developed in collaboration with the AAPI Youth Research Council and Evaluation Studio. Full details available at girlsleadership.org/aapi
